

What's Trending?

Developer API Portal

User files for a request to be granted Developer API portal.

Something like an email forum (contact us type page)

His request is looked upon, verified and then if allowed a token is generated for him to access API Portal otherwise if not allowed, a request rejected mail is sent back.

Parameters for whether to allow/disallow the request are under consideration.